

Lekshmi Puram College of Arts and Science
Neyyoor-629802
(Affiliated to Manonmaniam Sundaranar University, Tirunelveli)
Kanyakumari District, Tamilnadu

1.4.1: Feedback on Curriculum –Alumni

The feedback collected from the alumni on the curriculum is analysed and presented as follows:

1. The majority of the alumni (58.7 percent) agreed that the existing curriculum is appropriate one, the same is strongly agreed by 35.1 percent. However, 5.4 percent of them are neutral, and 1.4 percent disagreed.
2. A mixed response is received among the alumni on usefulness of curriculum in career (employment), 40 percent of alumni agreed, 36 percent strongly agreed, and 14.7 percent are neutral. However, 10 percent of them disagreed.
3. Thirty two percent of the alumni strongly agreed that updateness of the curriculum is essential, 49.3 percent agreed, and 13.3 percent in neutral. The remaining 5 percent disagreed with.
4. The majority of the alumni (56 percent) agreed that the study materials provided to them are relevant and updated, the same is rated as strongly by 25.3 percent, 16 percent are neutral.
5. The majority of the alumni (57.3 percent) agreed that the curriculum prescribed for them was intended to assist the practical skill, 29.3 percent strongly agreed. The remaining are either disagreed or neutral.
6. Thirty nine percent of the alumni strongly agreed that the way of teaching employed by the teacher is appropriate to the curriculum, 40 percent agreed, 17.3 percent in neutral and the remaining (4 percent) are disagreed.
7. Regarding ICT and teaching aids used for the teaching-learning process, 29.3 percent strongly agreed, 46.7 percent agreed, 16 percent were neutral, and the remaining 8 percent disagreed.
8. Forty-three percent of the alumni agreed that the curriculum prescribed for them is appropriate to enhance employment opportunities, 34.7 percent strongly agreed, and 17.3 percent are neutral. The remaining 5 percent disagreed.

(P. SARAVANAN)

Dr. M. SANKARI M.Sc., M.Phil., Ph.D.,
PRINCIPAL
LEKSHMIPURAM COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCE,
NEYYOOR - 629 802.

